

Hall of Fame Inductee

Name: JANEY HOOPER

Instrument: Piano and Vocals

Year Inducted: 2015

Janey Hooper's music career began as a teenager when she sat in with a band at a local bar. That was the beginning of a forty-year career as a vocalist and pianist whose versatility made her one of Des Moines most sought-after musicians in the realm of jazz, blues, gospel, R&B, and funk. In addition to playing numerous clubs and private parties, Janey performed for The Bridges of Madison County movie wrap party attended by Clint Eastwood and Meryl Streep. Sadly, Hooper passed away a year after she was inducted into the CJC Hall of Fame.

